UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

LIEUTENANT COLONEL (DR.) ANGELA K. STANTON

Lieutenant Col Angela K Stanton is currently the Dental Support Flight Commander of the 60th Dental Squadron. She is also the Chief of Prosthodontics and a staff member of the Advanced Education in General Dentistry-1 Year (AEGD-1) Residency Program.

Lt Col Stanton was born in Mt. Pleasant, MI and raised in Shepherd, MI. She attended Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, MI and subsequently the Indiana University School of Dentistry as a Health Professions Scholarship Program recipient, graduating with a Doctor of Dental Surgery degree in May, 2003. Upon graduation, she entered the United States Air Force. Her first assignment was to Wright-Patterson AFB, OH where she completed an AEGD-1 residency program. She then served as a general dentist at Rhein-Main Air Base, Germany. Lt Col Stanton was then accepted for and completed a residency in Prosthodontics at Wilford Hall Medical Center at Joint Base San Antonio-Lackland, TX, receiving her Master of Science in Prosthodontics degree in 2008. Upon graduation, she immediately entered a fellowship in Maxillofacial Prosthetics, also at JBSA-Lackland, TX, graduating in 2009.

Upon graduation, Lt Col Stanton was assigned as a staff prosthodontist and Dental Laboratory Flight Commander at Luke AFB, AZ. Next, she accepted her first teaching assignment as a prosthodontic staff member for the AEGD-1 residency program at Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson, Alaska where she was also the Dental Laboratory Flight Commander. Last, Lt Col Stanton moved to Travis AFB, CA where she was the Dental Laboratory Flight Commander before taking on her current role as the Dental Support Flight Commander.

Lt Col Stanton has been married to her husband, Juan Guerrero, for 5 years and they have 2 sons, Alexander and Nicolas.
